Keylogger program that could record all keystrokes made on a computer and export them to a remote server. Keylogger secretly records and logs all keystrokes typed, using specific keyboard or multimedia input devices. All keys and commands are recorded, no matter what device you're using! (Eg. xBox, keyboard, mobile phone, digital camera, etc.) Even if the software is running in stealth mode, its advanced monitoring capabilities let you capture sensitive data (e.g., credit card number) with almost no risk of being detected. Keylogger software automatically logs all keystrokes in a secure file on the computer, web server or database. No need to create your own files and manually export them to an archive - KeyMacer does it for you!
